F. de Havilland of Engineers, and daughter of T. de Saumarez of Guernsey, Esq., Attorney-General in that Island, died at the early age of 35 years. She is gone to her God whom she served with zeal and sincerity leaving an afflicted husband and four children to mourn her loss and to emulate her example; her enlightened mind was an ornament to society in which she stood highly respected, and, in the social duties of wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend, superior virtue. These virtues emanated from a warm and affectionate heart and were confirmed in true piety—to charity ever disposed, the deserving were never sent empty away. The Almighty Disposer of events bade purity and virtue lead the way, the name of this recorded worth here sought repose ere the cemetery was completed, and the afflicted husband who was forming it for public use submitted with pious reverence to the inscrutable ways of Providence which thus made him her protector in death as in life. She stands first in the awful book and gives a date to the register.

1827	16th July. Born 1779. Lieutenant-Colonel John Noble, C.B., Founder of the Corps of Horse Artillery on the Madras Establishment, distinguished by all that adorns the soldier, the citizen, the Christian, the ardour of a chivalrous spirit tempered by sound judgment and sustained by a just confidence in his own resources, generous and warm affections regulated by strict integrity and the crown of his other virtues unaffected and humble piety. After a brilliant career of military service he returned from the short enjoyment of his well-earned labours in his native land to lay his ashes in this theatre of his former glory.
1827 and 1849	21st August. Lieutenant-Colonel William Read, Deputy Quartermaster-General of the King's Troops, Madras, aged 45 years. Here also are deposited the mortal remains of his daughter Elizabeth Margaret, the dearly beloved wife of Brigadier-General S. W. Steel, C.B., Commanding the Ceded Districts Division of the Madras Army, who died of spasmodic cholera at Palsamoodrum on the route to Bellary on 15th February 1849, aged 41. Her remains having been brought to Madras were buried in this her father's grave on 10th April 1849. Truly amiable and affectionate in all the relations of life, she was a thorough Christian in faith and practice, admired and respected by all to whom she was known, and adored by her dependants. She was the pride of her devoted husband's heart, the ornament of his home, and the light of his life. "O Lord Omnipotent—All Beneficent—All Wise Inscrutable—Thy will be done."

1828	29th September. Harriet, wife of J. Dalmahoy, Esq., Assistant Surgeon, and daughter of the Rev. Dr. Laurie, Ayrshire; she was born 25th September 1802. The tomb stone has been so sullied by untruth that it is now a poor memorial of those we mourn; she, whose body reposes here, was a humble believer in Christ, simple and affectionate in disposition, and of an excellent understanding. Her memory is very dear to her husband and friends, and their love and respect to it are her best monument.

	Commander-in-Chief, and the Honourable W. The assassin atoned to the laws for his atrocious crime; but what can compensate the loss of a fond husband and indulgent father to his bereaved family, of an esteemed comrade to his companions in arms, of a talented gentleman to the society he graced, and of an accomplished officer to the Government which he served with fidelity and zeal!

1842	23rd February. This tablet has been erected by the Catholics of Madras as a grateful tribute to the memory of the Rev. William Kelly. He filled the chair of English Elocution for 9 years in the Royal College of Maynooth with universal applause. He resigned his professorship in the year 1838 and volunteered his services for the Madras mission, where, by his writings and preaching, he rendered essential service to religion, education and science. In February 1841 he was sent to Bengal on a special mission of charity, and eminently succeeded in allaying the unhappy differences which then distracted the Catholics of that place. He lived in the unremitting exercise of his sacred duties, and died, after receiving the last consolation of religion, at Hussingabad in the Vicariate Apostolic of Bengal, where his remains were deposited on the 23rd February 1842 in the 38th year of his age. May he rest in peace.—Amen.

In perpetual memory of Nina Margaret, the beloved wife of John Arathoon, Esq., of Nungumbaukum, Madras, who departed this life after a long and painful illness, endured with humble resignation to the Divine will, aged 65 years. She was a loving and affectionate wife, a devoted mother, and a true friend. The most marked trait in her character was goodness of heart, which ever prompted her to deeds of tenderness, self denial and charity to all around her, particularly to the suffering, the afflicted and the poor. In death she afforded a bright example of the victory of faith, of the sustaining power of religion, and of the peace which flows from a simple childlike trust in God. In compliance with a wish often expressed by her towards the close of her days, her remains were borne to their last resting place in this Cathedral on the shoulders of her six surviving sons.
